First-Plymouth Congregational Church, United Church of Christ, welcomes any couple desiring to marry. It is a great joy for us to take part in your special day, and to help honor what is a profound commitment — the vows of marriage. This booklet is designed to explain the procedures and guidelines for people being married in First-Plymouth Church.

We hope that the following pages will be of help to you in your planning. Please read this entire booklet. After reading, if you choose to be married at First-Plymouth Church, please contact Krista Rickman at First-Plymouth Church, Monday-Fridays, 12:30-4:30pm at (402).476.7565 ext. 245 or email krista@firstplymouth.org.

First, call to see if your date is open. We typically are able to hold that date for about a week, and during that time, arrangements need to be made to come to First-Plymouth Church to sign the wedding contract. At that time, a $100.00 (non-refundable) deposit is due.

Minister

It is the church policy that one of our ministers must be present and lead the ceremony at all weddings at First-Plymouth Church. The couple is required to contact our ministers at least six weeks before the wedding. A minister will be assigned by the staff unless one is requested at the time of application. Guest co-officiants are welcome to participate in the ceremony along with the First-Plymouth Pastor.

All efforts will be made to provide you with the minister and organist you request or are assigned, however, due to emergencies and other unforeseen conflicts, First-Plymouth reserves the right to assign another minister or musician as needed.

Wedding Coordinator

It is the policy of the church that all couples use one of our Wedding Coordinators. The Coordinator will be assigned by the staff. The Coordinator is to work with the bride prior to the wedding. They will coordinate all arrangements such as: time the pictures are to be taken, delivery of flowers, time wedding party is to arrive, instruct the custodian on how the church is to be set up, and other details that help make the service run smoothly. The Coordinator will be present at the rehearsal and will assist the minister. They will also arrive the day of the wedding approximately two hours prior to the ceremony. The coordinator will put you at ease on your wedding day by taking care of many details. The Coordinator will contact you to arrange an appointment time to visit with you prior to your wedding. At the time of this meeting, remaining fees will be discussed. If you have questions prior to the time the Coordinator contacts you, feel free to contact the Wedding Director and we will gladly answer your questions.

Music

After you have booked and secured your wedding at First-Plymouth Church, our Associate Minister of Music, (Ariel Merivil) will work with you to select the music for your wedding. Generally, you will receive an email that outlines wedding music procedures and guidelines and your assigned organist. However, it is your responsibility to contact Ariel Merivil (ariel@firstplymouth.org) to communicate your wedding music selections or for assistance in choosing appropriate music for your service.

It is recommended to be in contact with the associate minister of music two months prior to the day of the wedding. If you have not been in touch with the organist by 3 weeks before the wedding date, the organist will select appropriate standard wedding music for the ceremony. Because not all music is suitable or works well in a wedding ceremony, please do not set your heart on certain music selections before listening to our suggested wedding music repertoire or consulting your arranged organist.

NOTE: Any music outside of standard wedding repertoire must be approved.

Vocal/Instrumental Soloists

Vocal and instrumental soloists can be arranged with assistance from the organist and the Coordinator of Music and Fine Arts. Please keep in mind the following guidelines in regards to vocal and instrumental soloists:

- If you wish to have a friend or family member sing or play at the service, arrangements must be made with the organist when you make your music selections.
- Vocal and instrumental soloists are to be paid directly to the church if they have been hired by our music department.
- Scores for the accompaniment of vocal or instrumental soloists must be provided to the organist in the key and arrangement to be performed at least 2 weeks prior to the wedding date.

- One rehearsal with the vocal or instrumental soloists is provided (30 min. maximum – scheduled for the day of the wedding). Any extra rehearsals with a vocal or instrumental soloists may be contracted through the organist at $50.00 each (30 min. maximum).

The Plymouth Brass and Summit String Quartet

If you would like to have a trumpeter or The Plymouth Brass perform at your wedding, contact Tom Kelly at 402-421-2452 or plymouthbrass@windstream.net

If you would like to have strings or the Summit String Quartet perform at your wedding, contact Kim Salistean at 402-421-2481 or visit www.summitstringquartet.com

The Plymouth Brass & Summit String Quartet have their own set rates and contracts.

Facilities

First-Plymouth Church's Historic Nave (Sanctuary) provides a lovely setting for a wedding, seating up to approximately 650 persons, in a worship space with lots of history and adornment.

For smaller weddings, the Chapel is available and will seat approximately 125 persons.

Weather permitting, the Courtyard is a lovely setting for an informal wedding and First-Plymouth will supply the first 100 chairs, however, additional seating will be provided on your own.

Dressing Rooms: The Otis Young Room is available for the bride and her attendants on the first floor. The groom and his attendants will be assigned the Tower Room, located in the lower level.

First-Plymouth Church is handicapped accessible at the west and east entrances with elevator service to the main worship area. Handicapped parking is on the east and west side of the building.

Alcohol is prohibited in the building.

Decorations

No nails, tacks or tape can be used on pews, furniture or walls. Floral delivery times must be made with the Wedding Coordinator to insure that the building will be open. It is suggested that your florist arrive to set up no earlier than two hours before the ceremony.

The church has one candelabra and fourteen aisle candle holders. These are fueled by oil and can be reserved for a charge of $50.00. Aisle candles provided by a florist are prohibited. The church prohibits the use of an aisle cloth. The church does not provide a unity candle. If you wish to have a unity candle, you must provide it on your own.

The church is not responsible for loss or damage of any items brought in by the wedding party, florist or rental agencies. We strongly encourage you to lock up any valuable items that you may have.

We do have our Sanctuary set-up for our 11:59am worship service available for a rental fee, including a set-up/tear-down crew fee. If interested, please inquire.

Wedding Programs

Wedding programs are acceptable for the wedding ceremony. The church office is not responsible for providing these programs, however if you have questions regarding the programs, please contact your Wedding Coordinator.

Premarital Workshop Requirement

It is the church policy that every couple that is to be married at First-Plymouth, must attend one of the premarital workshops that the church offers throughout the year, unless both/or one person of the couple lives out of the area or has made arrangements with the Wedding Director. The workshop will cover issues such as: Active Listening; Love and Separateness; and Assertive Communication. Each premarital workshop will be led by a licensed clinical psychologist. The cost of the workshop is $25.00 (which is included on the wedding contract). Pre-registration required for each workshop, to register call Krista Rickman at 402-476-7565 ext.245 or email krista@firstplymouth.org.

Photography

Flash pictures are prohibited during the service. To avoid obvious intrusion and distraction during the ceremony, inform your photographer that all pictures must be taken from the back of the church. If you are planning to have your pictures before the ceremony, the pictures must start NO EARLIER THAN TWO HOURS PRIOR to the start of the wedding ceremony. Please plan accordingly and let your Wedding Coordinator know your plans. Be sure that you discuss these restrictions and instructions with your photographer prior to the wedding.

Videotaping

First-Plymouth Church is able to video record the wedding services that are held in the Sanctuary. This service available as outlined on the wedding costs sheet in this brochure. You must book at least eight (8) weeks in advance or you will be charged an extra $75 late booking fee. If you would like to have your own videographer in the sanctuary, please see the wedding cost sheet for associated fees. Livestreaming is also available. If interested, please inquire about availability and fees.

Carillon Music

First-Plymouth Church has an optional Carillon Music (Bell Tower) service to offer couples being married in the church. Carillon music is unique to First-Plymouth and adds to the celebration of the wedding. The Carillon Music service will consist of thirty (30) minutes of music, played by our Carillonneur, Kathie Johnson. This service is an option available as outlined on the Wedding Costs sheet in this brochure. We encourage booking the carillon music as soon as you decide your wedding date or when you meet with the wedding coordinator.

A $25.00 late fee will be incurred if the bells are requested two weeks prior to the wedding. If carillon music is requested one week prior to the wedding, $50.00 will be added to the original base fee. Carillon music requested late are subject to availability of the carillonist.

Sample Order of Service

Included is a template of a wedding service for your planning. However, at First-Plymouth, we want your wedding to be as unique and reflective of your faith and values as possible. Each couple, in concert with the Minister, can design their own elements of the service if they wish.
